

Badgers maintain lead

THE Bristol Badgers remain top of the AAA South League after completing a double-header victory over London Metros at Failand on Sunday.

A 7-2 success in the opening game was followed up by a convincing 10-3 victory in the second clash to extend their winning run to eight games on what was their first outing on home turf this campaign.

The double victory moved the Badgers clear of Essex Redbacks at the top of the table.

Co-manager Tom Hollies said: "It meant a lot to the team to win the games in front of our own families and supporters. It was a fantastic way to open our season at Failand after trips to Bracknell, Richmond and Chelmsford in the previous three weeks."

The club host Windsor & Bracknell Bears at the QEH Sports Ground in Failand on Sunday (12pm) in another double-header.
