

Bristol club runs training course

BASEBALL: The Bristol Baseball Club will run an umpire training course at Patchway Sports Centre on Saturday, March 12.

The free course is run by three qualified umpires and offers interested people the opportunity to gain certification, which will allow them to earn money by taking charge of games during the coming season.

For more information and to register your interest visit: http://bristolbaseball.co.uk/umpire_course.html