Bristol club is seeking players

THE Bristol Baseball Club is seeking new players as they begin their indoor training sessions on Sunday, March 11, at the Clifton College gymnasium.

The club is an amateur non-profit organisation open to players of all abilities, and they are celebrating their fifth year in the British AAA South League.

The club runs two senior teams for players aged 14 and over. The Badgers won their league for the first time last year and will be attempting to defend their crown in 2012. The Bats are the club's independent team and they will be playing against teams from Torbay and Plymouth this season.

For more information, including on-line sign up for indoor training, go to the website: www.bristolbaseball.co.uk
